I think lot of times this is the issue that the other person just cannot decide where to start but having such desk reference manuals will really help greatly. You may want to have the front desk staff to assist with creating the standard operations. This way, he will feel like their input is valued and are more likely to adhere to the procedures that they help create. Provide a copy of the procedures to the HR department to keep on file and use during front desk training and orientation, if needed.
